

---

Opportunities for the Alaskan Way Viaduct & Seawall – Envisioning A Better Future

February 12, 2002, 5:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Bell Harbor International Conference Center

Light refreshments provided at 5:00 pm for Leadership Group members

- 5:00 pm      Come early and enjoy refreshments while looking over the new information
- 6:00 pm      Introductions & Meeting Objectives – Pat Serie, Facilitator
- 6:05 pm      Welcome – Secretary Doug MacDonald and Mayor Greg Nickels
- 6:20 pm      Progress Since October Leadership Group Meeting – Maureen Sullivan, WSDOT Project Director
- Project and key milestones
  - Community outreach and feedback received
  - South, central, and north – issues and opportunities
  - Identifying transportation demand and systems management opportunities
  - Moving from conceptual alternatives to proposed plans
- 6:35 pm      Cost Estimate Validation Process, Risk Analysis & Variability – Dave Dye, WSDOT Urban Corridors Administrator; John Reilly, John Reilly Associates International, Ltd.
- 6:50 pm      Break
- 7:00 pm      Progress on Promising Plans – Tom Madden, WSDOT Engineering Manager; Bob Chandler, Seattle Project Manager
- Promising Plans -- North, Central, South
- 7:45 pm      Feedback and Reactions
- 8:45 pm      Staying on the Fast Track – Next Project Steps – Maureen Sullivan
- Further development of plans
  - Public outreach opportunities
  - Next Leadership Group meeting and focus
- 9:00 pm      Adjourn